

Forum UCC launches the project "Award UCC 2010".

Three Awards will be assigned to these categories: large companies, small-medium companies, central and local public administration.

The Awards will be recognized to those who have made outstanding contributions to projects of Unified Collaboration & Communications (UCC), which has implemented and managed with attention to these issues:

- degree of integration achieved between the different systems of communication and collaboration
- prevalence reached for the services of UCC
- diffusion and use of the UCC services
- promotion and information for users of the UCC services
- extension of UCC services to the partners
- management tools adopted, i.e. personal scoring.

To develop this project we identified the following activities:

1. preparation and announcement of the competition
2. definition of the criteria used for selection
3. appointment the jury
4. communication and sponsorship management
5. organization of gala Awards
